

RAN OVER A WHALE.

Sansanto Ferry Boat Shaken Up.

San Francisco Harbor Alive With Leviathans.

Boundary Line at Salinas—Engines Pushed into the Bay.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—(Special Dispatch.)—Fishermen in San Francisco Bay are reporting a large whale, a "big" whale, as the harbor seems alive with sportive leviathans which do not respect the right of way of ferry boats and other craft. Since the wreck of the pilot boat Bonita, last week, there have been many jokes over this fish story, and among the skeptical Capt. McKeon, of the San Francisco harbor tugboat San Rafael. McKeon is no longer a doubter, for yesterday, when the ferryboat was at full speed, a whale came directly in its course, not twenty feet away.

Before engines could be reversed or the wheel swung over, the vessel struck the whale fairly and passed clean over it, as it came up, splashed and (the whale) disappeared. The shock was so great that the vessel had run into a mud-bank.

BUCKEY'S VICTORIES.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—(Special Dispatch.)—Ninety-four out of 100 members of the San Francisco Produce Exchange today and there was cutting and marketing of goods. The market was outside of the board and found that the buckeye producers around the corner had all the figures that the buckeye market. In fact the plan to do up the buckeye people proved a humbug. The buckeye people got their questions at regular commercial rates and enjoyed a fine run of customers. The six brokers in the local exchange, who are also members of the Chicago board, had more business than they could handle.

As all business here on the Produce Exchange depends upon the Chicago quotations, the failure to have them on the board was a paralysis on trade. During the closing hour today a notice was posted that beginning tomorrow tomorrow Chicago quotations would be posted.

CORNER GRANDE WIRE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Aug. 2.—The Corner Grande Company won an advantage in the courts here today over the so-called Greene faction in the litigation which has been going on for a year over the valuable Corner Grande mine. The Phoenix National Bank is the holder of the deeds and contracts in escrow, which passed between W. C. Greene, former owner of the Corner Grande mine, and Mitchell, who bought the property. One condition was that Mitchell should pay Greene $250,000 in November, and other sums as stated. Mitchell assigned his interests in the Corner Grande Company to the Phoenix National Bank. A temporary restraining order was issued, and the court ordered the sale of the mine to Mitchell.

A temporary restraining order was issued, and the court ordered the sale of the mine to Mitchell. The effect of the decision in the Arizona court is moral, rather than material, as it is expected to influence the Madison decision.

Bush was one of the best-known young men in Sacramento. At one time he was a member of the local corps, and his reputation was good. Some months ago Bush went to San Francisco and procured a license to marry a well-known Sacramento girl, then living in Oakland, without the formalities of becoming legally married. He refused to marry, and he returned to Sacramento. One night he was found wandering in the streets, and he was taken into custody, examined and committed to the Stockton asylum.

KILLING OF MARTIN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STOCKTON, Aug. 2.—The main topic of conversation here today is the shooting of the railroad conductor, by Capt. Williams, the well-known river captain and pilot of the steam barge H. E. Wright. Today the prisoner was visited at the jail by his second wife, the meeting between the two being quite affecting. The prisoner has engaged an attorney and desires to talk about the shooting in any way. The efforts to get an anti-mortem statement from Martin last night were without success as up to the time that he was placed under the influence of the anesthetic in an endeavor to locate the bullet he believed and stated that he would surely recover. He passed away while the influence of the anesthetic. No formal charges will be placed against Williams until after the inquest. The general impression here is that the amount was unprovoked except by reason of there being an old grudge between the two men, in which the former Mrs. Williams is involved.

LA. F. NIGHT REPORT.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 1.—The free-for-all race for stallions was the principal event on the card today, and it attracted a crowd of fully 5000 people. The weather was fair and the track fast. There were four starters in the big race, Crescus, Grattan Boy, Charley New and Dare Devil. Crescus sold in the auction pool at $200 to $250 against the field, and with Grattan boyed Dare Devil was sold with the field. In the first heat Dare Devil threw a shoe before he reached the first quarter and was distanced. Grattan Boy had a bad start and Crescus won the heat easily in 1:17 1/2.

In the second heat Grattan Boy gave Crescus a sharp brush in the last quarter, and forced Ketchum to drive the cheater horse out. The last quarter was made in 31 and the mile in 2:05 flat.

In the third heat, Grattan Boy forced Crescus to the quarter in 2:21 and to the half in 1:05, and it looked as if it would be a record. Grattan Boy was about to be smashed, but the pace was too hot for Grattan Boy, and he was whumped peremptorily. Crescus went under the wire in a drive, however, making the mile in 1:58 flat. These are the three fastest heats ever trotted by a stallion in a race.

Pussy Willow was an almost prohibitive favorite in the 2:15 pace and won easily.

ALLEGED EMBELLER.

Chief of Police Eiton received a telegram about 6 o'clock yesterday evening from Constable H. B. Place of San Diego asking that J. L. Stout be arrested and held on a felony charge of embellishment. The telegram contained a brief description of the man wanted, and a detective was detailed on the case. It was learned that Stout had been driving a milk wagon for the New England Dairy until a few days ago, when he went to work on a ranch near The Palms. Procuring a rig, the officers drove nine miles out, and after a brief search of a few short times, located their quarry and placed him under arrest. At 11 o'clock last night he was handed behind the bars and a telegram was sent to San Diego asking that an officer be sent up for him.

The Weather.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Col. John Mason

Loomis, one of the best-known lumber merchants in the West, died at his home here today after a lingering illness, aged 72 years. Col. Loomis commanded the Twenty-sixth Illinois Infantry during the Civil War. Col.

Loomis was a charter member of the Loyal Legion and succeeded the late

Gen. Phil Sheridan as the head of the Illinois commandery of that military organization.

The onlookers might recall, but so far as reported, no one was hurt. Many of the spectators were deluged with water from the fire hose, but this was taken good naturedly by the crowd.

WAREHOUSE BURNED.

Half a Thousand Tons of Hay Lost.

Hoseman Almost Killed by a Deadly Live Wire.

Thousands Watched the Flames and Many Were in Danger.

A large three-story warehouse at the corner of College and San Fernando streets was totally destroyed by fire which broke out shortly before 11 o'clock last night and burned for two hours. The building was formerly used as a furniture factory by the

Haywood Bros. &amp; Washfield Company, but for a year past has been occupied, except in the lower story, which the Los Angeles Hay, Storage and Supply Company used as a storage-room for the lines of hay, all of which was consumed by the flames. The Los Angeles Hay, Storage and Supply

Company estimates its loss on hay at $1000. The loss on the building is placed at about $500.

Revivification says there was an endowment and then the flames burst out from all parts of the building. The flames in the Southern Pacific yards near by caused an alarm, and many were sent in from boxes 21 and 24. The building was old and burned like tin-der, and it was impossible to quench the fire, which had a headway that defied all efforts to subdue it. Two streams of water were kept playing on the flames.

FIREMAN BADLY SHOCKED.

A lot of electric wires made the work of the firemen unusually hazardous. A brilliant electric display was kept up by the many live wires that became landed during the excitement. Many of the fire fighters received shocks.

The crowd of spectators was with difficulty kept back from the dangerous portions of the surrounding streets where fallen live wires lay, a steady menace to every passerby. The streams from the hose were frequently turned on the spectators to keep them from encroaching on dangerous territory.

One of the live wires that lay at the intersection of College and San Fernando streets came very close to causing the death of Edward Johnson, a houseman belonging to Engine Company No. 1 from East Los Angeles.

Several of the engines were shut off about 11 o'clock, when it was seen that the fire must burn itself out, and the firemen were gathering up the hose not in use. Johnson and several of his comrades were raising up the hose at the street corner, when suddenly Johnson shouted that there was an electric current running about and that he felt the shock. A moment later he gave a shriek of pain and fell to the ground.

His fellows rushed up and several of them received bad shocks in attempting to drag him away from the wire, which was unseen in the darkness. Before they could pull the unfortunate man away, it was necessary to place several dry coats over his body to insulate his highly-charged person.

Finally he was dragged away unconscious and apparently dead.

The fast patrol wagon was sent for.

On the way to the Police Station Johnson revived somewhat, and by the time he reached the Receiving Hospital, it was seen that he would survive the shock.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.

If the stories told by the firemen who witnessed the accident are authentic, it is marvelous that the man caught in

What will the hot weather, the general interest displayed in all kinds of real estate and the city people's desire to get away from the city, in vacation, the building season, and the fact that can be termed lively. No time as it be said to be exactly dull, but it is a practically business as in a word by hourly all the large contractors. There is sufficient work residence property will be upon the market. Already a number of tracts have been platted. The present is one of the largest jobs yet worked that has been done in months. The newly-improved lots are only a few feet under way in length, extending from the street, a short distance below the street, to Stanton avenue. This is the only improved acreage in South Park, the land can be purchased by the city, and the next year the street on the side of that park will probably be improved. The Board of Park Commissioners in the annual estimate of needs has asked the City for an appropriation largely to improve South Park, and if improvement is made it will benefit property in that section.
